GOLD BADGE'S LA GRANGE.

That popular owner, P. Dunne, was very much in evidence at Harlem yesterday, winning three races with Sortie, Scales and Gold Badge. The latter won the La Grange Stakes, which was worth $995 net to the first horse.

Only five started in the stake event but they were all of about the same caliber and consequently it furnished a hot betting race, it being 3 to 1 and take your pick at post time. Starter Dwyer got the field away on almost equal terms at the first attempt and on the turn there was a lot of crowding and interfering and in the jam Money Mues was jumped on and quite badly cut down. Regea and Handy Man also met with interference and as Princess Tatiana was the interferer Gold Badge was the only one that had clear sailing. He took the longest route thereby avoiding all interference and having the best of the going and in the stretch made his four opponents look cheap, eventually winning with ease by about three lengths.

John Baker was a heavily backed favorite in his race, but as it transpired, he was not good enough at the weights to beat Eva Rice, who is not only very speedy but probably is at her best just now. Buchanan rode her and, getting away well, he made every post a winning one. John Baker was always in a favorable position and at the end Knight brought him away in a desperate effort to catch the leader, but he could never quite get up.

Hermoso, on his last clever performance, seemed like a legitimate 1 to 2 choice in the second race. But he had a hard contest from beginning to end. Hermoso is a front runner, and his inability to get away from John A. Morris in the early part of the race was against him. As a matter of fact both John A. Morris and Josephine B. outran him. In the stretch he came with a rattle and caught John A. Morris tiring. Josephine B., however, always showed the most speed and won by a narrow margin.

The judges appeared to think that the defeat of Hermoso was due to jockey Rose and they suspended the boy indefinitely. Rose has ridden some good racers and some very poor ones. Possibly he was not energetic enough with Hermoso at the beginning of the race, but it seemed that the horse was doing about his best and as if he was simply outpaced.

Sortie was much the best in the first race and he was smartly handled by Bloss, who since his reappearance in the saddle here has shown some clever work. Bloss got off none too well with Sortie and held a position on the rail, waiting for an opening. He found a chance to get through in the stretch, and then it was all over, the colt winning easily. Flick might have handled Natural Gas to better advantage, and Invictus, the pacemaker into the stretch, stopped badly at the end.

Scales, in the third, proved to be another easy winner for Mr. Dunne, beating a better class of horses than he has heretofore competed against successfully. Buchanan rode a good race on him, timing his run carefully and winning without much effort after Greenock had made the pace into the stretch. The Lady, who finished third, scarcely ran up to her best form. It may be that the soft going was not to her liking.

Macy, in at 102 pounds and ridden by Bergen, won the last race after an early drive with Pay The Fiddler. Macy was entered to be sold for $1,000. He was bid up to $1,205 and bought in for the stable. It was reported that the bidding was done by an agent of J. H. Smith, who was ruled off by The Washington Park stewards for violating the rules governing selling races.

James Murphy and William Mosely engaged one another at fisticuffs yesterday in the betting ring at Harlem. Both of them are bookmakers and occupy adjoining booths. Murphy, it is said, was the aggressor, and struck Mosely during a heated argument. The row caused an incipient panic in the betting ring. After the races both of the belligerents were called before Judge Hamilton, who severely reprimanded both of them, and imposed upon each a fine of $25.

The gross valuation of the La Grange stakes was $1,220, and Dunne's share of it amounted to $995.

WHY COLONEL SIMMONS RETIRED.

Concerning the appointment of Mr. C. H. Pettingill to succeed Col. R. W. Simmons and the reasons for the latter's retirement, Morning Telegraph says:

"C. H. Pettingill, who is at present occupying the judicial stand at the Highland Park Club's meeting at Detroit, has been appointed judge on Jockey Club tracks, vice Col. R. W. Simmons, who has resigned on account of age.

"Mr. Pettingill will report for duty on the opening day of the Sheepshead Bay meeting, which begins on August 25.

"The appointment to the position under the Jockey Club is an acknowledgement of Mr. Pettingill's ability, and a host of friends all over America will be pleased to learn the news.

"Though the resignation of Colonel Simmons will create surprise in some quarters it has been well known for some time by his intimate friends that he contemplated taking such action. Colonel Simmons has served as placing judge for many years, and he has of late felt himself unequal to the task.

"Last year, when the appointments were made by the Jockey Club, Colonel Simmons requested that his resignation be accepted. The stewards would not entertain the proposition, and he served through the season. Last winter he again made the request and met with the same answer.

"Recently he insisted that he be relieved of his duties, and at a meeting of the Board of Stewards last Wednesday the appointment of Mr. Pettingill was decided on. Mr. Pettingill was communicated with, and on his acceptance of the appointment Colonel Simmons' request was granted.

"In the retirement of Colonel Simmons the American turf loses one of the most popular and respected officials that ever placed a horse. During all the years of his incumbence not a breath of suspicion was ever breathed against him, and he had the entire confidence of the racing world.

"Mr. Pettingill is widely and favorably known as a racing official. He has served in the judges' stand and in the starter's box at important meetings east and west for the last twenty years, and has the confidence of all horsemen. With Mr. Pettingill and Mr. McDowell placing the horses at the fall meetings of the Jockey Club tracks horsemen and the public will be well served."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

In regard to the report that the dates allotted to the Empire City track would be annulled, it is certain that P. J. Dwyer has refused to run the meeting unless a guarantee of $25,000 is posted. It is hardly probable that the executors of the estate of the late William H. Clark will agree to this, and the Jockey Club is also sure to require the proposed guarantee before the meeting can be held, so there are two stumbling blocks in the way. It is believed that P. J. Dwyer has offered $100,000 for the track and that the offer has been refused. Should the dates for this track be annulled they will be divided between Aqueduct and Gravesend.—New York Herald.

The trouble is now believed to be nothing but a grabbed quarter, which is easily cured, though occasionally it takes some time. Kilmarnock is taking regular exercise.

Some prominent Philadelphia turfmen have applied to the Jockey Club for a license to hold a five days' meeting at Philadelphia. Among the names of the petitioners are Rudolph Ellis, Colonel Edward Morrell and A. J. Cassatt. The names are a guarantee that the meeting will be a high class one, and there is only one trouble in the way. Members of the Jockey Club believe that the laws of Pennsylvania prohibit a meeting being held in the state, but if the applicants can prove that the meeting is legal the license is sure to be granted.

THE SPRECKELS YEARLINGS.

At the Fasig-Tipton sale, to be held in New York during the latter part of August, the Spreckels Stock Farm of Napa will offer twenty-eight head of the grandest bred yearlings that ever left this state. In past years the product of this farm has been offered at auction in the local market, but this season A. B. Spreckels concluded to compete with the breeders on the other side of the Rockies. In all, twenty-eight head will be shipped—the get of Ormonde, St. Carlo, the sire of the great Ruinart; Crichton, sire of Canace and other fast ones; Ravelston, the wonderfully fast but unfortunate son of Flambeau; Eolo and the richly bred English horse, The Judge.

Of course the aristocratically bred young miss by Ormonde—Atossa, carrying in her veins four crosses of the great Stockwell, will be the star of the sale. Already a private bid of $3,000 has been refused for the filly, Mr. Spreckels insisting that she take chances with the balance of the consignment.

Of the others it is hard to make a pick. All have been broken but not tried, and even now these embryo racers look ready to answer the bugle call sounding post time. There is a bay filly by Eolo—Annie Race that will stand a lot of inspection. Another rare looking filly by The Judge—Lista Hock catches the fancy of the critical. Perhaps the chestnut colt by St. Carlo, claiming old Geraldine as his "mammy," will evoke some lively bidding. This sprightly fellow is the first and last foal of California's favorite sprinter, and now seems endowed with the speed of his maternal parent.

With the back of a quarter horse, the quarters of a Racine and legs that look capable of standing all sorts of wear and tear, a handsome bay filly by Ravelston—Lady Cleveland, dam of Catalus, looks all over a winner. She has driving power behind like a stern-wheeler and the ranch hands predict big things for the youngster. A black colt by General Miles—Trigic looks good, and a finely furnished bay colt by General Miles—Nellie Bell, dam of Canace, will assuredly bring a swell price, if looks and actions count for anything. The royally bred Marcelle is represented for the first time at public sale by a statuesquely turned colt by Eolo, racy looking enough to suit the most fastidious buyer. Cut down in the zenith of her career, Alma Dale has a bay daughter by St. Carlo that looks all over a stake winner. Of the others that will be led into the sales ring nothing but praise can be said, and looks will speak louder than any words that can now be wasted on them.—San Francisco Call.

A POSSIBLE MATCH.

The sensation of the week in racing circles was furnished by the unexpected defeat of Ethelbert in the Beverwyck Handicap at Saratoga. Few expected that the horse would start so soon after his gruelling drive in the Brighton Cup, and his appearance at the post after a hurried trip to the Springs was a big surprise to his admirers. They only played him in a lukewarm way, believing that his preparation for the cup event and his abrupt transfer to Saratoga had taken the edge off his speed. The result showed that these calculations were all wrong, and that the gallant son of Eothen—Maori would have won with anything like a fair break. As it was he demonstrated that he was the best horse in the race, and Kinley Mack must be considered a very lucky winner. This revives the question as to the relative merits of Voter and Ethelbert at one mile, and horsemen are still hoping that these two giants of the turf may be brought together before the season ends.

Both horses are now on edge and as Jack Joyner is reported to have solid money to wager on Ethelbert against Kinley Mack, it is not improbable that a similar offer to James Rowe, the trainer of Voter, might bear fruit. The trainer of Kinley Mack does not want to brush up against Ethelbert as he freely admits that his horse is unsound and incapable of extending himself except on a track soft and cushiony enough to suit his weak hoofs.—New York Sun.

Winner—Br. m. by Blazes—Planetta.
Went to post at 3:43. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. The first three came to a drive in the stretch and Ennomia drew away in the final sixteenth and won with speed in reserve. Lady of the West was under a drive all through the last quarter. She came wide at the stretch turn. Baffled showed fine early speed, but quit when it came to a drive. Highland Prince took the short route and was well ridden. He ran his race.

Jackadie and Fairy Dell fought it out for third place and were driving to the limit in the last eighth. Tom Kingsley showed but little speed.

Went to post at 5:19. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second driving. Hungarian showed the most early speed, but had to do his best in the last eighth. By George finished fast and was catching him at the end. Wine Press was slow to get in motion, but she saved several lengths at the stretch turn and stood a hard drive through the last furlong. Annie Lauretta was on the outside all the way and she was stopping at the end.

Winner—Br. c, by Himyar—Favorers. Went to post at 2:30. At post 9 minutes. Start bad. Won easily. The next four were driving to the limit. Sortie was best and best ridden. Bloss hugged the rail all the way, thereby saving much ground, and came away without an effort in the stretch. Natural Gas ran a smashing good race. Flick got him pocketed several times and rode a poor race generally. Invictus got away flying, liked the going, and showed a lot of speed, but quit almost to a walk in the stretch. Hernando had no mischances. He was high in flesh and was probably short. Poyntz was sharply shut off at the start. Leo Newell ran a bad race. Scratched—19908 Henry Burt, 110; 19906 Floranthé, 107. Sortie, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Natural Gas, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Invictus, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. f, by Falsetto—Patroness. Went to post at 3:05. Off at the second break to a perfect start. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third were also under keen pressure. Josephine B. for once managed to get away well and on a track to her liking ran a smashing good race. She and John A. Morris had a bumping match in the stretch, one being as much to blame as the other. Hermoso was hard ridden all the way, but the early pace was terrific considering the condition of the track and he could never get to the front. This took the heart out of him as he is strictly a front runner. John A. Morris was staggering all through the stretch and tired enough to lie down. The others were outclassed and beaten off all the way. Scratched—19907 Lamity, 100; 19873 Hilee, 102; 19939 Euterpe, 100; 19907 La Princesa, 100; 19939 Highland Lad, 98; 19937 George, 105. Winner—B. g, by The Bard—Equipoise. Went to post at 3:35. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second handily; third and fourth were doing their best. Scales is a horse with some pretensions to good class and had an easy time of it here. Buchanan, on far the best horse, rode a well-judged race. Greenock liked the going and beat the others as easily as Scales beat him. The Lady about ran her race. Vohicer showed a lot of speed, but swerved all over the track and tried to run out in the stretch. The field was badly strung out all the way. Scratched—19935 Wax, 105; 19806 Maharajah, 95; 19909 Goldone, 95. Overweights—Satan, 5 pounds. Scales, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Greenock, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. The Lady, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by Badge—Tweedledum. Went to post at 4:05. Off at the second break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were driving. Gold Badge won like a good colt. Knight swung very wide into the stretch, losing much ground, but he struck a streak of good going and at the end had plenty in reserve. Rega, after being sharply interfered with by Princess Tatyana shortly after the start, ran a good, game race. Handy Man was right there at the finish. He got into a jam on the far turn, otherwise he would have been closer up. Princess Tatyana seems to be an inconsistent performer. Money Muss was cut down in the race and Kuhn eased him up at the end. Corrected weights—Rega, 87. Gold Badge, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Rega, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Handy Man, show, evens. Winner—Ch. m, by Masetto—Miss Rye. Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily after a sharp early drive. Eva Rice revealed in the going, had speed to give away and won in a high-class way. John Baker was well handled, had no excuses and ran his best race. Little Jed Waldo was not strong enough to do Dissolute justice and the colt ran on his own courage all the way. There was too much speed and the route was too far for Tayon who was well handled and ran to the mark. There was nothing to the race outside of the first four. Scratched—19662 Major Dixon, 95; 19939 Brown Bay, 105; 19733 Tutthill, 99. Eva Rice, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. John Baker, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Dissolute, show, 9 to 10.

Winner—Br. h, by Hindoo—Alga. Went to post at 5:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Macy outclassed his field, the soft going was to his liking and on him Bergen rode a good race. He rated in behind his horses until the stretch was reached and then went to the front like a flash. Pay the Fiddler showed a lot of speed and ran a good race for him. Buchanan rode an indifferent race on Our Nellie. Plantain showed some speed. Walkenshaw ran a poor race and does not seem to be at his best. The winner was run up $200 over his entered price of $1,000 by an outsider but was retained. Scratched—19664 Handpress, 112; (19938) Branch, 97; 19938 The Devil, 95; 19844 Donation, 104.
